NOTICE TO PROPOSED INSURED - PART I

Notice of Insurance Information Practices - In the course of properly underwriting and administering your insurance coverage, the listed insurance companies will rely primarily on information provided by you. The companies may also see information from others, such as medical professionals who have treated you. In some cases, they may ask a consumer reporting agency to collect information and submit an investigative consumer report to them. You have the right to request to be interviewed in connection with that report. You may receive a copy of the report by contacting the consumer reporting agency as explained in the Federal Fair Credit Reporting Act Notice.

In some situations, and in compliance with applicable law, the insurance companies may disclose necessary items of information to third parties without your specific authorization. You have the right to be told about, and to see and copy if you wish, items of personal information about you which appear in the insurance companies' files, including information contained in investigative consumer reports. You also have the right to see correction of information you believe to be inaccurate.

NOTICE TO PROPOSED INSURED - PART II

Federal Fair Credit Reporting Act Notice (FCRA)

In connection with your informal inquiry about insurance, an investigative consumer report may be prepared whereby information is obtained through personal interviews with your family, friends, neighbors, business associates, financial resources, or others with whom you are acquainted. This report includes information as to your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, and mode of living. Upon written request to the life insurance companies listed in this Notice within a reasonable time after receipt of this Notice, you will be informed whether or not an investigative consumer report was requested and, if so, you will be advised of the name and address and phone number of the consumer reporting agency to whom the request was made. The consumer reporting agency, upon request, will furnish information as to the nature and scope of its investigation. You have the right to inspect and receive a copy of any such reporting by contacting the consumer reporting agency.

Medical Information Bureau (MIB) Inc. Disclosure Notice

Information regarding your insurability will be treated as confidential. The life insurance companies listed in this Notice or their reinsurer may, however, make a brief report thereon to the MIB, a non-profit membership organization of life insurance companies, which operates an informal exchange bureau on behalf of its members. If you apply to another Bureau member company for life or health insurance coverage, or a claim for benefits is submitted to such a company, the Bureau, upon request, will supply such company with the information it may have in its file.

Upon receipt of a request from you, the Bureau will arrange disclosure of any information it may have in your file. If you question the accuracy of information in the Bureau's file, you may contact the Bureau and seek a correction in accordance with the procedures set forth in the FCRA.

THE ABOVE IS A GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE LISTED INSURANCE COMPANIES AND YOUR AGENT'S INFORMATION PRACTICES. IF YOU WOULD LIKE TO RECEIVE A MORE DETAILED EXPLANATION OF THOSE PRACTICES, PLEASE SEND YOUR REQUEST TO CPS INSURANCE SERVICES AT
